Book Recommendation:

When I Go to Church, I Belong

Finding My Place in God's Family as a Child with Special Needs

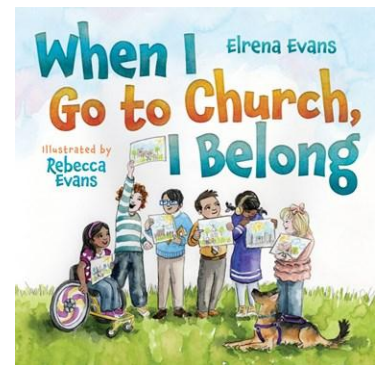

by Elrena Evans

Illustrated by Rebecca Evans

Help Children Learn that Everyone Has a Place in God's Family

Church is a place where everyone should feel welcome—but not every child experiences it the same way. When I Go to Church, I Belong is a beautifully illustrated story crafted for children with disabilities and for everyone who desires their churches to be places of welcome and belonging.

Through the experiences of six children with special needs, author Elrena Evans invites readers to see through new perspectives and understand the beauty of diversity within God's family. This heartfelt book is a celebration of inclusion, reminding us that while we all have our differences, we also share so much in common. With tender illustrations by Rebecca Evans and a thoughtful note from the author, this storybook opens conversations about what it means to belong.
